DEPENDABILITY

Dependability is a trait which a person cannot be granted by gift nor decree. It can be achieved only through the efforts of the individual by days, months, and even years, of attention to promptness; keeping his word; loyalty to his friends; and fulfillment of obligation to his church, community, and country. Yet, dependability is one of those rare and rich jewels of character which contributes greatly, enabling the individual so possessed to stand out above the average in his community.

You who are being graduated this year have demonstrated dependability by your achievement in completing school—may you, in the pathway of life that stretches before you, blaze a trail that will in the years to come symbolize you as one of those distinct individuals of whom it is said —“He is dependable”—because without it, success cannot be yours.

Those industries whose business has continued to furnish the life-blood of commerce and prosperity to your community over the years have done so—not by a miracle, but by constructive hard work and establishing a character—the same characteristic which can mean so much to you —dependability.

OWENS-ILLINOIS

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has become a major employer in the UK, and its growth has been a major factor in the overall growth of the economy.

The public sector has also become a major employer of women. In 1980, women made up 40% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 50%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of women in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with disabilities. In 1980, people with disabilities made up 1% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 3%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with disabilities in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people from ethnic minorities. In 1980, people from ethnic minorities made up 2% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 5%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people from ethnic minorities in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with low qualifications. In 1980, people with low qualifications made up 10% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 20%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with low qualifications in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with low incomes. In 1980, people with low incomes made up 10% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 20%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with low incomes in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with low skills. In 1980, people with low skills made up 10% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 20%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with low skills in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with low motivation. In 1980, people with low motivation made up 10% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 20%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with low motivation in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with low commitment. In 1980, people with low commitment made up 10% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 20%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with low commitment in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

Board of Education

The members of the Board of Education should be congratulated for the work that they have done for Alton. These men relinquish time and effort without pay to serve Alton. Last spring largely because of the hard work of the Board, Alton voted to spend five million dollars for improvement of our school system.

Superintendent

Mr. Johnson has been serving Alton since 1929 and has been Superintendent since 1947. Under his direction we have grown into one of the best school systems in the state. His pleasing personality and practice of hard work have become his trademarks.

Mr. Leamon as assistant superintendent has moved into a new post this year. His job is to assist Mr. Johnson in whatever duties are necessary.

Mr. Pruitt is the administrative assistant in charge of Junior and Senior High Curriculum. He is a strong believer in firmness, fairness, and fun.

Assistant Superintendent

Administrative Assistant

The Administrative Staff

The administrative staff is composed of men and women who are very important to the efficient running of the Alton School District.

Mr. Ready is in charge of elementary curriculum, Miss Anthony, director of libraries; Mr. Wollerman, director of audio-visual education; Miss Williamson, director of art; Mr. Fritz, director of music; Mr. Keil, school engineer; Miss Henry, director of home economics and lunch service; and Mr. Norman, director of special education, counseling, and guidance.

Principal

Mr. G. C. Davis, serving his second year as principal of Alton High, is familiar to all the students. He may seem stern to some but has been more than willing to do all he can to help the students.

With the addition of the Olin Building last year and a record attendance of 1482 students this year he has more responsibility than any other principal has ever had.

Assistant Principal

Mr. Jureziz is in his first year as assistant principal. He is responsible for assigning the students to classes as well as other duties helpful to Mr. Davis.

Administrative Assistant

Mr. Wright as administrative assistant is very familiar around the Olin Building since he is in charge of vocational education.

*Best wishes always. Best wishes to you and your to our smallest best. your happiness and success

Office Staff

Mrs. Doris Taylor, seated, is in charge of the office work. Standing around her are Mrs. Loretta Edwards, Miss Wilma Bricker, Miss Beverly Landiss, and Mrs. Georgia Curry.

Miss Mary Sidwell is the head of the Cafeteria. Much of the success of the Cafeteria is due to the hard work of Miss Sidwell.

The Cafeteria Staff

- 1st row: Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Penrose, Mrs. Kuhn, and Mrs. Stader.
- 2nd row: Mrs. Hughson, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Cartwright.
- 3rd Row: Mrs. Denitz, Mrs. Whittleman, and Mrs. Richards.
- 4th row: Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Purcell, Mrs. Bruck, Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Penrose.

Academic Building Custodians

Mrs. Lucy Cook, John Bennett, Otto Sheffel, James Crawford, and Emil Budde. O. B. Jones is the head of the custodian staff. John Brown was not present when the picture was taken.

Furnace Room

The men who work in the furnace room are Hobert Hadley and Everton Watson.

Olin Building Custodians

Mrs. Maxey Smith, Sam Henson, Lawrence Metzler, and Charles Hunter.

Senior Officers

Tom Marquis traditionally presents the cane and chain to Judy Edsall, June, 1953.

The tradition is carried on by Judy and Ken, January, 1954.

SENIOR OFFICERS

The senior class officers serve as a link between the students and faculty. They organize the committees for the senior activities and help those committees with their jobs. In addition it is traditional for the graduating senior class president to present the Cane and Chain to the president of the 4-1 class during the Commencement program.

June Class Officers are Bill Eidson, Vice-President; Linda Lingenfelter, Secretary-Treasurer, and Ken Prewitt, President.

January Alpha Winners

In order to receive a silver alpha, a student must have a high school grade of 90 or above and an average of 95 or above for a gold alpha.

First Row: Marjorie Cochran, Nancy Titchenal, Pat Grenzebach, Janice Rousseau.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a group of honor students who are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Only 5% of the 3-2 class, 10% of the 4-1 class, and 15% of the 4-2 class can be selected each year. The sponsors are Miss Alice Gates and Miss Margaret Hall. This past year a group from the Alton High chapter traveled to Granite City to induct new members and to start a new chapter there. The Society also held a potluck in honor of the new members inducted in January, which was enjoyed by all. The officers for the second semester are: Ted Woodbury, president; Phil Davis, vice president; Gretchen Sieg, secretary; and Betty Calame, corresponding secretary.

- Row 1: Dee Hoagland, Jack Glaeser, Betty Calame, Gretchen Sieg, Ted Woodbury, Phil Davis, Ruth Turnbull, Nancy Titchenal.
- Row 2: Irma Brunnworth, Elizabeth Burns, Myra Bowers, Dolores Gubser, Sally Morrow, Davi Richards, Merry Leach, Rae Turnbull, Karen Kelly, Pat Thomas, Kathleen Thompson, Linda Lingenfelter, Donna March, Margaret Ringering.

GIRLS' COUNCIL

The Girls' Council is a service organization consisting of girls from the junior and senior classes. Membership is determined by recommendation by the English teachers and a vote of the older members of the Council.

BOYS' CABINET

The Boys' Cabinet is an organization that serves the school in many ways. They announce and work the scoreboard at the football games, work concessions at basketball games, take tickets at various organizations, and post the large bulletin board in the main entrance. This year the Cabinet bought a large fan for the office help and helped in the purchasing of an audiometer for the nurse.

Quill and Scroll

This national honorary society for high school journalists includes members of the staffs of both our school publications, the TATLER and the TIMES. The Alton High chapter was reactivated this year after lying dormant for quite a few years. Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Irma Allen were the first semester advisors, and after Mrs. Allen left, Mrs. Barbara Zeller took her place. This year members attended a convention of the ISHSPA, and they also sponsored a student assembly which featured Beulah Schacht, columnist for the Globe-Democrat. A field trip to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch was taken and enjoyed by the members. Regular meetings are not held, but inductions will be presented each fall and spring.

Alton High Basketball of 1953-54

Alton's record this year was 10-15 during the regular season. The team was composed of three seniors, three juniors, and six sophomores.

There were many highlights of the year despite the unimpressive record. Alton played a whale of a game to down the Flyers of East St. Louis, and later on in the season gave highly ranked Wood River many scares before the Redbirds had to bow in defeat. The team progressed rapidly as the season advanced, and the boys should have gained plenty of experience for future basketball wars.

ROUSTABOUT AT WORK

Last season's track team was greatly hampered by the bad weather during the season but still managed to come out with a fair record. It was the first season as track coach for both Mr. Studley and Mr. McLain. The squad was composed mostly of juniors and sophomores. Les Hale and Vic Belanger received the honor of competing in the state tournament. Les ran the long distance races and Vic threw the discus.

Alton High Baseball

Alton won eight and lost five during their baseball season. Jim Bourland pitched a sterling game against Belleville, and won 1-0. Bill Graves was instrumental in sinking the Conference Championship-bound Edwardsville Tigers by hitting a triple and a home run against them. Tom Marquis, Bob Hewitt, and Jim Eisenreich carried the brunt of the hitting attack, while Jerry Chioloro, Butch Rosack, and Bill Eidson did their part in scooping up hard-hit grass clippers. Graves and Christian did the bulk of the catching, while Jim Bourland, Tom Marquis, and Joe Rittenhouse pitched.

Our staff consists principally of seniors on a voluntary basis. Names are chosen from the 3-2's who sign up in the spring. Although a lot of work is involved, we do have lots of fun too. The staff is divided into three main parts - editorial, sales, and advertising, plus photographers. Membership on the TATLER staff or the TIMES is the first step towards Quill and Scroll.

Organized in the year 1904, the TATLER has attempted to present a pictorial history of life at Alton High. The budget of such a huge operation is overwhelming sometimes. To augment our income we sell pictures, senior name cards, advertising, and of course the books themselves.

ALTON HIGH BAND

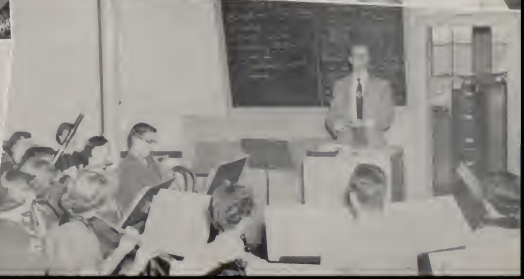

Hats off to Mr. Murfin and the Alton High Band for the wonderful job they have done this year. They presented two concerts during the school year, one before mid-year graduation and one in the spring, as well as playing for graduation, plays, and assemblies.

The football games would not be the same if the band did not always put on its performances at half-time, and who can imagine a basketball game without the pep band there to help stir up the spirit?

This year the band went on a two day concert tour to Illinois Wesleyan College in Bloomington and Western State College in Macomb. It was quite a thrill for all the members of the band as well as an honor to be able to perform to college audiences.

The band members selected Bill Eidson, President; Jack Glaeser, Vice President; and Dick Glassey, secretary-treasurer.

ALTON HIGH CHORUS

Alton High's "warblers" have accomplished a great deal this year and deserve much praise.

There are three programs a year in which all members participate: the annual Christmas Concert, the Junior-Senior High School Festival, and the Southwestern Illinois Choral Festival. From the latter the students receive instructions from nationally known choral directors.

Small Choruses and ensembles are constantly in demand by the community.

This makes the chorus one of the first public relation agents in our school system. We should tip our hats to them.

The Choir Helps With the Entertainment

Summary of the 1953-1954 Season

8:00 a.m. - - The circus has begun!

This year the chorus began the season with the sixth annual Christmas Concert, December 8 at the High School Auditorium. Max Steindel at the cello and his brother Walter, at the piano added much to the success of this presentation. A musical program was presented at the mid-term graduation with such favorites as "Heavenly Light" and "Sleigh Ride." The March Civic Orchestra Concert was a big event of the year. "I Hear America Singing," a cantata under the direction of Mrs. Rue, was especially featured. For an encore the 150 voice chorus responded with the stirring, ever-beautiful "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which created many lumps in many throats. The Junior-Senior High Festival, held March 23, was just as enjoyable this year as it has proven to be in past years. Somehow there is nothing more thrilling than a large group of voices well blended in song.

Dream Girl

Davi Richards was crowned Dream Girl of the 1953 Junior Prom. Her maids of honor were Linda Lingenfelter, Merry Leach, Rae Turnbull, and Ann Crane.

The Prom was a huge success with an overflowing crowd of more than three hundred students packed into the gym. Merry Leach sang "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" and a boys' ensemble sang during the intermission which featured the crowning of the Dream Girl.

HOMECOMING

This season for the first time Alton High had a Homecoming football game. It was made possible mainly through the hard work of the Student Council and various other clubs. Graduated lettermen were admitted free to the game with the oldest letterman being honored by having his name announced over the public address system. During the half-time the Band performed and saluted the football Queen and her Special Maids as they drove around the field in shiny convertibles. After the game a dance was held in the gymnasium with the DeMolay Dance Band furnishing the music.

The big show comes to town.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

Betty Hausman was crowned the 1953 Football Queen of Alton High on the Wednesday prior to the Homecoming game. She was escorted to the throne by Jim Eisenreich, quarterback on this year's football squad. The special maids were: Linda Lingenfelter, escorted by Bob Hausman; Pat Thomas, escorted by Louis Kyle; Merry Leach, escorted by Felix Macias; and Barbara Chappell, escorted by Gene Warner. This year for the first time the maids were not seated according to the number of votes they received in the all school election. John Buerkle was the crown bearer and Vicki Schmelzel and Marsha Long were train bearers. Bob Denby sang "Hail To the Queen," and Betty Calame played a piano solo as a salute to the newly crowned queen.

"THE FATHER OF THE BRIDE" - - IN THREE ACTS

"Father of the Bride," a play in three acts, was presented by the Dramatic Club this year.

Ted Woodbury played Mr. Banks, a distraught father who tore his hair out over the expenses of his fair twenty-year-old daughter's fabulous wedding. Davi Richards portrayed the part of Kay, his daughter.

Bill Eidson, as Buckley Dunstan, was just a stand-by to the whole fracas even though he was the groom-to-be.

Everyone including Karen Kelly, Mrs. Banks, Kay's socialite mother, engaged Jack Glaeser (Ben Banks) and his fiancée, (Janice Miller) and teen-age brother, Tommy (Fred Schaeffer) added their friends to the ever-growing guest list. By the time all the tampering with the card files is over, the house wouldn't hold the guests.

Others in the cast were Myrna Reis, Ann Geddes, Karen Cooper, Lois Campbell, Diann Bosnak, Dick Glassey, Terry Bonnell, and Harvey Bacus.

Dear Kay,

Well our school days are over and will be on our own from now on.

We've had lots of fun together, even if we never can decide on where we're going until we get there. Remember the night we went to Colknawill ^{and the} and Belleville, and finally ended up in Skaggs eating a full meal. Wow! ^{BEST OF LUCK} What a night!

I feel real honored being able to be one of your ^(spelling?) brideweeds, and to be with you at the crucial moment. I know you and Fred will be ^{CLASS OF 1954} happy, and good. Better ask me over for some hamburgers. I'm dying to see your apartment.

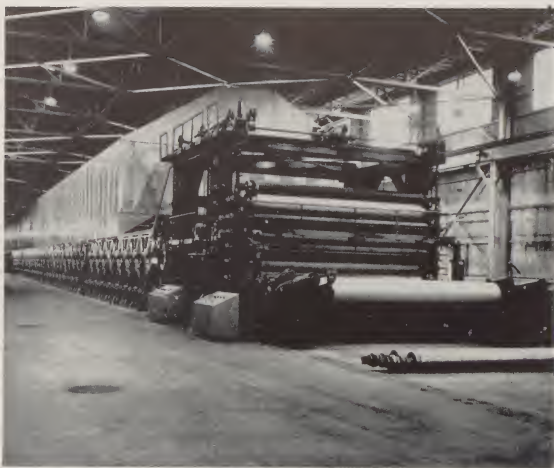

I hope we can stay in touch with each other after ^{Agency} graduate.

You're a swell gal, and one of the best friends I have ever had, I hope we can always be this way. ^{ALTON WOOD RIVER LEADER}

I know will have a bang-up time after, and during the Senior Prom, and I hope we can all get together afterwards and decide where to go (ha).

Well the space is running short and the whole band is tired, so bye for now and be good if ya can.

Love ya always

DEPENDABILITY

Dependability is a trait which a person cannot be granted by gift nor decree. It can be achieved only through the efforts of the individual by days, months, and even years, of attention to promptness; keeping his word; loyalty to his friends; and fulfillment of obligation to his church, community, and country. Yet, dependability is one of those rare and rich jewels of character which contributes greatly, enabling the individual so possessed to stand out above the average in his community.

You who are being graduated this year have demonstrated dependability by your achievement in completing school—may you, in the pathway of life that stretches before you, blaze a trail that will in the years to come symbolize you as one of those distinct individuals of whom it is said—"He is dependable"—because without it, success cannot be yours.

Those industries whose business has continued to furnish the life-blood of commerce and prosperity to your community over the years have done so—not by a miracle, but by constructive hard work and establishing a character—the same characteristic which can mean so much to you—dependability.
